"ROLL THEIR OWN!"

Making Your Own Cigarettes With "Bull" Durham the Fad of the Year—it's Easy to Learn

Among smokers who know, it's the fashion to carry a sack of "Bull" Durham and a book of "papers" and deftly "roll their own" cigarettes.

The swift spread of this snappy custom has followed the discovery that in no other way can you obtain a cigarette so fresh, mild and satisfying.

"Bull" Durham is made of golden Virginia-Carolina leaf—the tobacco that makes American cigarettes the most popular in the world. This wonderful "Bull" Durham leaf is cut into tiny flakes just the right size to roll quickly and easily into smooth, round cigarettes that are cool-burning and sweet.

Any man can get the knack of rolling cigarettes with "Bull" Durham in a very few trials. To help you learn, an illustrated booklet showing how will be mailed to any address in the U. S. on request. Address "Bull" Durham, Durham, N. C.

Get a 5c sack of "Bull" Durham today—ask for the free book of "papers" that goes with it—and start "rolling your own".

ARRANGEMENTS FOR FIELD MEETINGS

Dunklee Farm in South Vernon to Be Visited Next Tuesday—Meeting in Athens Thursday, 31st.

The first of a series of three field meetings will be held at A. A. Dunklee & Sons, South Vernon, Tuesday, Aug. 29. The forenoon will be spent in going over the farms and looking over the stock. Aside from the regular crops there are several demonstration plots including 12 varieties of corn, 12 varieties of soy beans, four of manure, etc. These plots are very interesting and two hours before dinner is none too long for looking over the farm.

The dinner at noon will be on the basket plan, everyone providing for himself.

At 1.30 there will be an address by Morgens Tolstrup, who has charge of the department of markets under Commissioner E. S. Brigham. For several months Mr. Tolstrup has spent much of his time in the Massachusetts cities studying the marketing end of the products which are typical of Vermont.

Following this there will be an address by George F. E. Story, professor of dairying at the Vermont College of Agriculture. He will speak on the raising of livestock. Mr. Story formerly was with the Massachusetts College of Agriculture.

On Thursday, Aug. 31, there will be a basket picnic and field meeting at the Pond, in Athens. The Saxtons River, Townshend and Grafton Granges, the people of Athens and the Windham County Agricultural association are co-operating to make this a pleasant and profitable day for all who can attend.

At 10.30 Miss Bessie M. Thayer of the Vermont Extension service will give a canning demonstration for the women. At the same hour all men who wish may visit the soy bean and alfalfa demonstration plots on the farms of D. H. Morehouse and Nial Bonis. There will be someone present to explain the treatment of the crops.

Twelve-thirty will be lunch hour on the basket plan.

Speaking will begin at 1.30 and will include addresses by the following: G. W. Powers, Athens; A. A. Dunklee, South Vernon; Morgens Tolstrup, St. Albans; Thomas Brattleboro, Burlington, director, Vermont Extension service.

There will be vocal and instrumental music. Everybody is invited to these meetings.

The third meeting will be held in Newfane on a date to be announced.

WESTMINSTER WEST.

Mrs. Edward Coffey and two children of Malden, Mass., who have been visiting several weeks at the home of her father, Earl Fuller of Putney, spent several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell.

After Helen Hall remained for a visit with Mrs. Rollin Tanner. Mr. Hall and daughter were returning home from a two-weeks' visit in Meriden.

"I DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, it is not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL.

W. G. Doolittle has sold his lot of pine in East Dover to the New England Box company of Greenfield, Mass.

Charles Wood, traffic officer, who has weathered through many hot days at the corner of Main and Elliot streets, was presented yesterday afternoon with a big umbrella by W. J. Pentland, jr. The officer much appreciates the gift.

Today the Princess theater presents Mary Miles Minter in the Metro production, Lovely Mary. Tomorrow John Barrymore in the Paramount feature, The Red Widow, and Billie Burke in the seventh chapter of Gloria's Romance will be featured.

Basil Gregware, 61, died last evening in his home on Birge street of a kidney trouble. He had been ill since January. He leaves a wife, who was Emma Peltier, formerly of Lowell, Mass., two daughters, Marybelle, 7, of Brattleboro and Mrs. Hattie McLaughlin, of Medford, Mass., also a son, George B., by a former marriage. Mr. Gregware was born in Canada, coming to Brattleboro to live about 28 years ago. He was employed by Liveryman George E. Gilman 15 years, doing town work much of the time, but for the past two years had been working at the Last Block factory. The Holy Name society of the Roman Catholic church will meet this evening in the home on Birge street at 8 o'clock. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in the Roman Catholic church.

There are some repairs being made at 8 Brook street, which propose to keep in shape for public requirements. Please call and advise with your opinion. Taylor the Tailor.—Adv., 148-ff

WEST BRATTLEBORO

Miss Charlotte Robbins is visiting in the summer home of her uncle, Merton Robbins, in Dunsmuirton.

Louis Stollman came yesterday from Syracuse, N. Y., to join his family at the Stollman cottage at Sunset lake.

Clarence Coffey is assisting in W. Renfrew's mill during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Renfrew on an automobile trip to Revere.

Miss Mary Scott returned yesterday to her home in South Vernon, after having been at the Melrose hospital a few days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sargent were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robbins yesterday on an automobile trip over the Mohawk Trail.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark, who had been visiting Rev. James Clark and family in Bennington, are now guests of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark of Bullock street.

Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blood of Dunsmuirton, who has been in the Melrose hospital four weeks for medical treatment, is a little improved and is able to be dressed and about the hospital.

Mrs. Helen H. Cooper and daughter, Irene, and son, Howard, who had been boarding at E. A. Knight's several weeks, have begun housekeeping in Charles Miner's house on Green street. Mr. Cooper, who was here several days, has returned to his home. Mrs. Cooper and children lived in Burlington before coming to this town.

WILMINGTON.

Mrs. Mary M. Ward.

Mrs. Mary M. Ward, 80, for more than 40 years a resident of this place, died about 2.30 o'clock Monday afternoon of dropsy and complications, in the home of her son, Clifton W. Ward, who carries on a farm. She had been in failing health since two years ago last spring.

Mrs. Ward was born July 16, 1836, in that part of Somerset which afterwards was set off as a part of Dover. She was a daughter of Milo and Laura (Copeland) Hall. She lived in Somerset until she was 16 years old, when her marriage took place to Stephen Haskell of Wilmington. They lived in several places, Mr. Haskell being engaged in the jewelry business. He died many years ago.

For her second husband she married Oscar J. Ward of West Brattleboro, a farmer. They lived in West Brattleboro and Marlboro and came to Wilmington over 40 years ago, buying the farm which was their home as long as they lived.

Three children were born of the first marriage, of whom the only survivor is Mrs. Thomas Collins of West Brattleboro. By the second marriage there were six children, all of whom survive. They are Mrs. William M. Hall of this town, Charles M. Ward of Stratford (Vt.), Clifton W. Ward, who lives on the home place, Linn, wife of Henry Hall of Wilmington, Osbert O. Ward of College View, Neb., and Fred B. Ward, who lives on a farm formerly a part of the home place. She leaves one brother, Asa Hall of Athol, Mass., and 16 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the house and the burial took place beside her second husband in Riverview cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collins of West Brattleboro and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Snow of Brattleboro came to attend the funeral.
